

Finesse Staffing is Looking to Hire 400 Workers

Forklift drivers, machinists and warehouse workers wanted

October 18, 2011

(Rancho Cucamonga, California) Finesse Staffing, an Inland Empire-based staffing company, is currently accepting applications for 400 skilled and general labor positions for an Ingram Micro retail distribution facility in the region. The company is hiring cherry picker and reach forklift drivers, machinists and general warehouse workers.

The positions pay between $9 and $17 per hour, depending on the job. "Not all of these positions require experience, and some of the general labor jobs are open to all workers," said Sarah Cullins, president of Finesse Staffing. "The majority of these positions are seasonal, but some people will have the opportunity to be hired on in the New Year."

Job seekers should apply at Finesse Staffing's office, located at 10600 Trademark Parkway, Suite 407, Rancho Cucamonga, from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Job seekers need to bring two forms of identification. For more information call 909.466.9933.
